

STERLING PATRIOTS WHOSE CHARACTER AND GENIUS CREATED AND FASHIONED THE AMERICAN HERITAGE

GEORGE WASHINGTON

JOHN ADAMS

JAMES MONROE

Washington advised: "To be prepared for war is the most effectual way of preserving peace" and "It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world." John Adams led initial fight for American independence with courage and patriotic disinterestedness. A statesman who could be counted upon to rise above partisanship in time of crisis. Monroe's famous MONROE DOCTRINE served notice on European governments that any attempt at new colonization in the New World would be deemed an unfriendly act and became cardinal principle of American foreign policy. The Panama Canal sell-out would be unheard of if Monroe were president today.

Valiant Dust That Builds on Dust

(Continued from Page 1)

Nevertheless, reeking tube and iron shard DID maintain a kind of order in the world for two centuries. Today that source of world order is gone, and no worthwhile new source of order has taken its place. We may expect now to have a period of world anarchy and disaster. What has taken the place of "Reeking tube and iron shard" in the Power-Structure of the world? Mainly, the big, loud lying mouth of the modern Jew. It was the Jews who destroyed the British Empire, in order to supplant it as a source of world order with their own worthless ideas. The worthless ideas of the Jews met the acid test in the year 1967 and failed decisively.

We are not entering into a period in which the world will "Go Communist" and be ruled by the Jews for a long period. We are entering into a period in which NO KIND OF IDEAS, including Communism, will be able to hold their own. We are entering an Age of pure, raw, savage barbarian instinct and power-lust, an Age in which the world will be governed by its belly and its muscle and its basic lusts, rather than by brainpower. The Power Structure of this new age promises to have no more brains than a spider. A spider has only an elementary nervous system, but see how skillfully the spider catches a fly! Ordinary people of either Christian or Jewish Faith have little notion of the appalling magnitude and intensity of the spiritual crisis which impends in today's world. The believer of our times has been taught to be a "Jolly Good Fellow" and to "Go along with the crowd." It is not deemed good taste to ask questions about where the crowd is going. For all we know, the crowd might be going to hell in a cart; indeed, it appears that they probably are. Atheists and Communists appear as indifferent as believers in these matters. Never mind where we are going; Just GO.

We may now begin to see where we are going. Let us see how Russia occupied Yemen. Did they send Communist agitators to deliver Marxist spiels? They did not. They sent their air force. In other words, they sent naked physical force, not the ideas which they claim have such great power. Thus they revealed infallibly where their faith really lies. Long ago, a man named Mohammed conquered this area with the power of an idea; but then Mohammed really HAD an idea. The present age has no ideas which are really worth anything. We have only the bankrupt gasbagery of the Jews. The "Communist" and "Anti-Communist" gasbags have argued for a hundred years over ideas which are not really worth anything at all, and which exert little or no real power in the world. We have heard a lot of gasbagery about "Red Russian Marxism." But when Russia really wants to seize a strategic position like Yemen, she does not send her preachers of Marxism; she sends her air force.

What does the seizure of Yemen by Russia mean to the United States? It means that we can now use the Suez Canal only with the permission of Russia. Yemen dominates not only the Canal, but the alternate routes from the Persian Gulf around the Cape of Good Hope. In other words, we can ship oil from the Persian Gulf to the United States only if Russia allows us to do so. Russia can shut our Merchant and Naval shipping out of the area between Singapore and Suez. This route was the fabled "Lifeline of the Empire" in the days of the British Empire. British control of this route was essential to the PAX BRITANNICA and to the peace and order of the world. Russia now has occupied the position Britain formerly held in this area.

In June, Defense Minister Dayan of Israel was hailed as a "Great Military Genius," a sort of latter-day Napoleon. Israel went to war when Nasser closed the Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli shipping. Russia, now in Yemen, can close this route to Israeli shipping any time she pleases. What will you do about that Mr. Dayan? Will you go to war with Russia? In other words, the objective for which Israel fought in June has met its negation. Today nobody can enter the Red Sea if Russia chooses to stop them.

The disaster which befell the United States in 1967 can best be seen by looking at a world map. I hope that you have one handy. Look at the Middle East. Look at the Red Sea, at Saudi Arabia, which has the world's largest oil reserves. Take a pencil and trace lightly on your map the route of an oil tanker bound from Ras Tanura to Philadelphia. Remember that this is where much of the "go juice" in your automobile comes from. Now find Yemen. Imagine that you are on an oil tanker bound from Ras Tanura to Philadelphia. Russia has an airbase in Yemen and can operate submarines or surface warships from Yemen. What if Russia wants to stop your oil tanker? You might think that you can take the alternate route around the Cape of Good Hope, at the southern tip of Africa. But Yemen has a Russian airbase, remember? This route is within easy range of very ordinary conventional military aircraft based in Yemen. Russia can stop you from running your oil tanker on either route. Moreover, Russia no longer has to argue with Saudi Arabia. Russia now can TELL Saudi Arabia what to do. In the future, you will get oil from the Persian Gulf only at the pleasure of Russia, and you will pay the price Russia wishes you to pay. Now take your pencil and mark a big "X" on Saudi Arabia. Saudi Arabian oil is one of the things the United States lost in 1967.

We lost a great deal more than that in 1967. We lost NATO. We lost all of our Allies and are left alone in the world. We lost Western Europe. Again, Communist ideas played no substantial part in our loss of Western Europe. Europe did not "Go Red" and never will. The Europeans are far more sophisticated than our American Pro-Communist and Anti-Communist gasbags. The men who sit in the Chancelleries of Europe know that ideologies are made for the sucker trade. Ideology is not taken seriously on the policy-making level in Europe. What attracted Europe into Russia's orbit was naked force, the magnetism of naked physical power, rather than Marxist ideology. Europe was encircled from the south by Russia. Dayan, the great Israeli military genius, handed Europe to Russia on a silver platter. With Russia in charge of the Middle East, nobody in Europe any longer resists expansion. All of Europe today is engaged in a mad scramble to get the best possible terms from Russia. The dim outline of a great "World Island Empire" is beginning to emerge. It is a frightening image. We shall see the rapid development of a set of tightly-allied Totalitarian states extending from the Atlantic across Europe and Asia to the Pacific, and from the Arctic Circle to the Indian Ocean. This will be the greatest conglomeration of economic and military power ever assembled on the globe. It will not be a "Communist" Empire. Men who possess this kind of power, this kind of resources, do not go about simpering over the "Plight of the masses." They go to work and exploit their captive masses with a will. In fact, the only thing which delays Russia in making a complete repudiation of Marxism is this: It takes a little time for the hard-working intellectuals to invent new ideas to take the place of Marxism. They are working overtime, though, and by 1970 should have something ready, especially since they will be aided in this labor by the hard-working Germans and French, who have always been mentally agile.

Some American Conservatives have dreamed of an alliance between the United States and Germany. You can forget that now. Nobody in Western Europe can afford to think of being allied to the United States any more. You had your chance at the German alliance long ago, and you muffed it. You will not have a second chance. You can now relax and think glumly what a powerful industrial combination the alliance between Germany and Russia will make.

If we wanted to have alliances, we would have to conduct our foreign affairs with at least some semblance of sanity. We have not done any such thing in the last sixty years. We have not been conducting an American foreign policy at all. We have been conducting a Jewish policy. The basis of that policy was an effort to rule the world by intellectual and financial power. That effort has failed. It has failed miserably, failed utterly, failed completely. Even the pants pressers emeritus who invented this policy should now be able to see the abysmal depth and magnitude of the failure of it.

Over the last year, we have traced the intrigues which have led to the downfall of Jewish power in Russia. The murder of Leon Trotsky was an important factor. Yet it was not mere intrigue which led to the failure of Jewish plans. It was REALITY. The Jew gambles everything on "The power of great Jewish ideas." The new "World Island Empire" which is emerging under Russian hegemony is obdurately resistant to ideas. It is the creature of naked force, naked power-lust, bare elemental instinct. The Jew has little real temptation to offer to this Empire. It simply does not need the Jew or his shoddy ideas. No matter how hard the Jew tries to hang on, he is sure to be done in. The new "World Island Empire" will be Anti-Semitic, Anti-Christian, Anti-American, and Anti-Communist. It will not have to bother about being "Anti-Communist" long, however. Marxism will be so quickly and completely forgotten that men will have difficulty recalling what it was. The New Empire will move quickly to install other beliefs. They are apt to be pretty barbaric beliefs. "Rebarbarization" will be the keynote of the new Empire. Paganism will be its religion. It is essentially a Pagan Empire; Paganism is the religion of the tangible and the material; this is why it demands idols; it must worship the visible, tangible object, not the Unseen Presence of monotheism. Therefore, the new Empire will persecute both Christians and Jews. We are near the time when Catholics will lose Rome.